2:00PM - 4:00PM

Venue:

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints
2035 N Windsor Drive
Arlington Heights, IL

What we will do

Dr. Sabouri will work with BHA students on their repertoire, discuss practising techniques, and answer their questions.

One of the most sought after and respected American violin pedagogues of the new generation, Dr. Pasha Sabouri has performed in recitals and concerts in Holland, Sweden, Austria, Germany, UK, throughout the United States and Canada.

He is a passionate educator and a published author whose acclaimed book "Upbeat" guides middle and high school students and their families on the road to professional musical education and career. His students are competing and featured in such competitions and media outlets as Menuhin Competition, Sphinx Competition, Dallas Symphony's Lynn Harrell Competition, ENKOR Competition, NPR's From The Top, winning the coveted "Jack Kent Cooke" Award, and are accepted in top conservatories – Juilliard, Colburn, New England Conservatory, Oberlin, Cleveland Institute of Music, Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and many others.

Dr. Sabouri is the founder and Artistic Director of the Texas Strings Festival, and it's affiliate Master Series – a year-round educational initiative which provides the students with extraordinary opportunity to be guided and inspired by leading musicians of the day. He is also the founder and leader of Teachers' Lounge – an online teachers collective designed to support and empower his colleagues with innovative ways of teaching and studio development.

Pasha Sabouri is on the faculty of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music Pre-College.
