What we will do

This Master's Workshop with internationally renowned violinist Vadim Gluzman will work with academy students on their repertoire and share practical tips that will inform and inspire them in their musical journey.

Universally recognized among today's top performing artists, Israeli violinist Vadim Gluzman breathes new life and passion into the golden era of the 19th and 20th centuries' violin tradition. He is acclaimed for his appearances with the Berlin Philharmonic, Boston Symphony, London Symphony, and Royal Concertgebouw and under Riccardo Chailly, Christoph von Dohnányi, Tugan Sokhiev, Michael Tilson Thomas and other leading conductors. Gluzman has introduced the public to new works by Sofia Gubaidulina, Giya Kancheli, Moritz Eggert, Elena Firsova, Lera Auerbach and Pēteris Vasks, and other composers.

Accolades for Mr. Gluzman's striking catalogue of recordings for the BIS label include the Diapason d'Or of the Year, Gramophone's Editor's Choice, Classica magazine's Choc de Classica award, and Disc of the Month by The Strad, BBC Music Magazine, and ClassicFM. Mr. Gluzman is Distinguished Artist in Residence at The Peabody Conservatory in Maryland and performs on the extraordinary 1690 'ex-Leopold Auer' Stradivari, on loan through the Stradivari Society of Chicago.
