onstage/offstage series

in-person and livestream concerts

Since its first concerts in 2011, the NORTH SHORE CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL has grown to become one of the highlights of the Chicago summer classical music scene, providing the North Shore with inspiring musical experiences of the same level of excellence as those found in the great halls of the world, but within an intimate environment that welcomes both connoisseurs of chamber music and concert goers who are new to classical music, and at an affordable price. Called “an inspired summer event not to be missed”, NSCMF has become a magnet for today’s leading classical artists who travel here for the opportunity to perform with each other and especially to share their artistry and experience in masterclasses with emerging young musicians from Chicago and beyond.

Our onstage/offstage series brings the magic of the annual summer festival to downtown. Some events, like our Master’s Workshops by renowned international artists, are streamed from around the world and others are presented in-person in the lovely recital hall at PianoForte Chicago – Chicago’s premier downtown piano destination.

We hope you will join us!

Some OSOS events are presented live-in-person and others by livestream on our website at www.nscmf.org.
There is no charge to attend any event.

KALINOVSKY

Hailed by critics as a “superior poet” (Vancouver Sun) and praised for his “heart and indomitable will” (Gramophone), Kalinovsky has performed at some of the world’s major venues, from all three stages of Carnegie Hall in New York to Musikhalle Grosser Saal in Hamburg.

Technique IS Music: A Master's Workshop

November 12, 2023

12:00 PM (CDT)

Recorded at Indiana University, Bloomington, and streaming from PianoForte Chicago on www.nscmf.org and theviolinchannel.com

Grigory Kalinovsky, one of today's most sought-after violin pedagogues, is welcoming us to his studio for a fascinating session.

Kalinovsky is professor of music in violin at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, where he was appointed to faculty in fall 2013. He also teaches at the IU Summer String Academy and continues to teach at the Heifetz International Music Institute.

ViolinMind, his book on theory and technique of playing using different tuning systems was published by OvationPress in 2019.

Kalinovsky has presented master classes at many major U.S. festivals and music schools, including New England Conservatory, Colburn School, Meadowmount, University of Maryland, San Francisco Conservatory, and Seattle Conservatory. He has also presented at numerous European and Asian institutions, such as the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, Buchmann-Mehta School of Music and Jerusalem Music Center in Israel, Hochschule für Musik "Hanns Eisler" in Germany, Beijing Central Conservatory in China, and Seoul National University and Korea National University of Arts in Seoul.

Kalinovsky's students have won top prizes at national and international competitions, including the Tibor Varga Youth Competition, Menuhin Young Artists Competition in England, Andrea Postacchini Young Violinists Competition in Italy, and Fischoff International Chamber Music Competition in Chicago. They have gone on to study at institutions such as Curtis, Colburn, Juilliard, Yale, New England Conservatory, Manhattan School of Music, and Indiana University, among others.
