

PRESENTS

International Musical Bridges - ART of Collaboration Workshop

October 5 - 10, 2024

In partnership with Kaufman Music Center, New York

The North Shore Chamber Music Festival presents International Musical Bridges – Art of Collaboration, an inspiring six-day workshop offered in partnership with Kaufman Music Center in New York City! Enjoy coaching sessions by today's leading collaborative artists Rohan De Silva, Evgeni Sinaiski and Angela Yoffe.

This workshop includes coachings, rehearsals, an opportunity to collaborate with young prize-winning violinists, and a final concert at Steinway Hall featuring Sonata movements.

FACULTY

Rohan De Silva, piano
Chamber Music Faculty, The Juilliard School
School, New York

Evgeni Sinaiski, piano
Professor, Music and Arts University, Vienna

Angela Yoffe, piano
Founder and Executive Director,
North Shore Chamber Music Festival /
Arkady Fomin Scholarship Fund

WORKSHOP

Igal Kesselman, piano
Director, Lucy Moses School / Music Director,
Special Music School, Kaufman Music Center,
New York

SCHEDULE

Saturday, October 5

Welcome/ Orientation / Rehearsals
3:00 - 6:30pm
Evening Concert: Rohan De Silva at Zankel Hall

Sunday, October 6

SONATA repertoire workshop
9:30 - 6:00 pm

Monday, October 7

CONCERTO repertoire workshop
3:30 - 7:30 pm

Tuesday, October 8

CONCERT PIECES workshop
3:30 - 7:30 pm

Wednesday, October 9

SONATA workshop and rehearsals
3:00 - 8:00 pm

Thursday, October 10

3:30 - 6:30 pm rehearsals
7:00 pm CONCERT at Steinway Hall

ABOUT AFSF

Our Arkady Fomin Scholarship Fund celebrates its 10th year of providing educational scholarships and nurturing young artists.

Since 2015, we have awarded scholarships to over 60 talented young artists from around the world thanks to the generosity of individual supporters and sponsors.

To learn about our Arkady Fomin Scholarship Fund and the young Stars of Tomorrow we have supported, please visit <https://nscmf.org/afsf/>

STEINWAY & SONS

Special thanks to Regina Davidoff at STEINWAY & SONS for providing a beautiful venue for the final concert.